

Creative Writing Assignment

Rewrite the ending of the novel. What changes in the storyline would drastically affect the outcome and the ending of the story? Some examples may be sending Danglars back to a French prison, Edmond marrying Mercedes, the death of Valentine, Maximilien, or Noitier, or the Count's death before completing his revenge. Experiment with different ways to end the story and see what you like or dislike about different ideas. After completing this assignment, you should ask yourself why Dumas chose to end the novel the way he did.
