

Amanda

girly, studious, sincere, excitable sister of Chelsea, Rachael, and Joseph Lover of chocolate, ice cream, and anything girly who feels the power of words, the beauty of a thunderstorm, and the love of God who needs to continue learning, stuffed animal friends, and to be accepted who fears stepping on cracks or paint, buses and elevators, and change who gives love freely, her whole self into everything she does, and her dead fish gravestones

who would like to see the world, the day when all the children of God accept the Gospel, and this week's episode of ER
