

The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn.

Slavery

Life on the Mississippi

Character

Moral Dilemma

Nature Theme

Knowledge	Comprehension	Application	Analysis	Creative Thinking	Critical Thinking
Find biographies of slave-life.	Write one paragraph for each side of the slave debate.	Create a plan to escape with your family out of slavery.	Compare today's racial issues with those at the time of Huck. Differences?	Write a short narrative as if you were a slave right off the boat.	Suppose Jim had been the young white boy and Huck the slave...
Learn about Mark Twain. Timeline of his life.	Reconstruct a day on the Mississippi.	Make a raft out of Popsicle sticks. Make a supply list for one week.	List difficulties that might be encountered on the Miss. Different from your own life	Create a business for the Miss. Solve problems that may arise.	How much of Huck resembles Mark Twain. Examples.
Draw the characters from book. List attributes and page numbers.	Good/bad: If the characters split into gangs who would be in each gang.	Choose three characters that remind you of people you know. Why?	FOIL- Are there foils in Huck Finn? Who? Why? Examples?	Write a different story using the same characters. Pg #s to support.	Choose one character and show how he/she develops through book.
List moral dilemmas that Huck faces.	1 pg. essay. What is a moral dilemma?	How are moral dilemmas apart of life? What influences our decisions?	Impossible moral dilemmas solved in groups.	Create a moral dilemma story. Choose your own adventure books.	If you had been with Huck on the raft, would he have chosen different? how
Make a timeline of Huck labeling when he is in nature.	Find examples when nature restores Huck.	In nature free-write vs. in class free-write.	Compare affect of civilization on Huck with nature on Huck.	Draw your own sanctuary that would restore you. Write 1 pg. of what it is like.	Why does nature have a restoring affect? What other things do? difference