Explain Interest:

Why are you interested in attending the conference?

Qualifications:

Why do you think you should be selected to attend the conference? Are you a dedicated writer? Have you started a novel? Finished a draft to a novel? Are you new to writing novels, but eager to progress? Explain.

Availability: Check One of the Following Boxes

<input type="checkbox"/>	I am available the entire week of May 14 th -18 th , and can come to 100% of the conference.
<input type="checkbox"/>	I really want to come to the conference, whatever parts of it I possibly can, but I'm taking classes spring semester or otherwise committed elsewhere. Can you please work with me?

Writing Sample:

Please attach the first 5-10 pages of a YA novel as your writing sample. If you do not have a YA novel to use, but would still be interested in the conference, please submit another piece of writing (5-10 pages long) but be sure to label it according to genre, so that we can evaluate your work fairly. Writing samples should be double spaced and in MLA format. They should be stapled to the back of your application.

Agreement and Signature

By submitting this application, I affirm that the facts set forth in it are true and complete, and that I am a BYU undergraduate student. Once this application is complete, please print it out, staple your writing sample to the back, and submit the complete application to the English Office in room 4198 of the JFSB. Applications are due March 20th, 2018 by 5:00 PM.
